

Dear Sir / Madam,

We are in the market for procurement of Domestic non-coking coal of 2.0 Lakh MT for our thermal power plant of capacity 1050 MW ( 3 X 350 ) situated at Kamalanga, Orissa- India as under :

|   |                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---|-------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | Quality                 | 3400 GARFor detailed specifications refer annexure 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 2 | Delivery Period         | To start lifting of coal within 7 days of order. Supply of 2.0Lakhs MT(10%) non-coking domestic coal through Rail Mode- Tentative supply Aug-50000MT Sep-50000 MT, Oct-50000MT & Nov-50000MT. Supply to be as per the plant requirement. The quantity is tentative and can be revised upward or downward as per plant requirement & landed price on Rs/Mcal shall be benchmarked to the spot auction coal prices during the phase wise supply. For sake of clarity, in case the contracted price is higher than the discovered spot auction price, the spot auction price shall prevail. However, if the discovered spot auction price is higher to contracted price, the lower of the two shall prevail. |
| 3 | Payment Terms           | Coal Price for Delivery at Plant inclusive of Cess, GST & Freight (Rs /Ton).Payment By LC or cash basis.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 4 | Bidder's qualifications | 1. Vendor including its subsidiaries, affiliates & parent company should not have been blacklisted or brought to litigation in (anywhere in the world) by any supplier for default in the last three years2 No consignment supplied by the vendor or its subsidiaries or its affiliates or its parent companies should have been subject to rejection on account of deviation in quality                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 5 | Source of coal supply   | 1. Provide name of the coal mine/railway siding with its location2. Grade of coal and specifications                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 6 | Performance Guarantee   | Furnish interest free security deposit of Rs.50 lakhs (Rupees Fifty lakhs only) in form of RTGS or BG. The BG validity will be beyond three months from the date of completion of order.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

Payment Terms' Mechanism:

Provisional payment of 80% will be made upon submission of bills, subject to contracted GCV and not being below rejection limits. This provisional payment shall be adjusted in the final invoice and balance shall be released after reconciliation.

In case you are interested, kindly submit your competitive offer latest by 28th July 2023, 5.30 PM.

ANNEXURE-1

| Description           | Basis | Unit      | Desired   | Rejection  |
|-----------------------|-------|-----------|-----------|------------|
| Gross Calorific Value | (ARB) | Kcal / Kg | 3,400     | Below 3000 |
| Ash                   | (ADB) | %         | 33-38     | 42         |
| Total Moisture        | (ARB) | %         | 10-12     | 15         |
| Inherent Moisture     | ADB)  | %         | 5 approx. | -          |
| Size                  |       | mm        | 50-100    | Above 100  |

Contact person –Mr. Venkatapathi.Raju

Contact Mail Id- Venkatapathi.Raju@gmrgroup.in